Bir Ses

Author(s): Gülşah Yemen

Every sound has a story—and this one listens to the world. In Bir Ses, Gülşah Yemen and Çağrı Odabaşı invite young readers into a gentle, rhythmic journey through the sounds of everyday life. From crunching autumn leaves to crackling snow, from pattering rain to boiling kettles, the book transforms ordinary noises into moments of wonder, awareness, and sensory discovery. Written in simple, lyrical language and enriched with onomatopoeic expressions, the story celebrates listening as a form of curiosity and connection. Each page introduces a new sound tied to a season, a time of day, or a natural element, helping children notice, name, and enjoy the world around them. The structure is repetitive yet soothing, making it ideal for early readers and read-aloud sessions. Hailed as a warm introduction to mindfulness, language, and sensory awareness, Bir Ses encourages children to slow down, listen closely, and find joy in the smallest details. A poetic and playful picture book that turns everyday sounds into unforgettable moments.
